

The Structured Maturation of Nihiltheism (NT) #outline

I. Inception: The Experience of Nihilism

- Experiential Realization of the Illusion of Values
 - Dissolution of Temporal Self
 - Loss of Subjectivity- loves, hates, preferences, etc.
 - Critique: Naturalistic Explanations
-

II. Emotional and Psychological Resonance

- Profound Dread
 - Crushing Anguish
 - Inescapable Doubt
-

III. Ascetic Contemplation

- Bewilderment of the All-Encompassing Nature of Nihilism
 - An Insufficient Definition under Purely Naturalistic Framework
 - Echo of the Possibility of the 'Beyond'
 - Drawing away from the Human, Finite
 - Pushing Towards the Possibilities of the Infinite
 - Critique: Limitations of Conventional Theology
-

IV. Intense Study of Philosophy

- Infinite Concepts
 - God
 - Abstract Objects: Numbers, Values
 - Critique: Language Barriers
-

V. Interplay Across Traditions

- Western Philosophies
 - Eastern Philosophies
 - Theological Interpretations
 - Critique: Symbolism vs Literalism
-

VI. Beyond Physical Perception

- Ontological Exploration
 - Material vs Immaterial Realms
-

VII. Psychedelic Catalyst

- Induced Experience
- Unknown Consequences
- Full Ego Death, beyond only Worldly Subjectivity

- Out of Body, State of Pure Consciousness
-

VIII. The Transcendent Experience of Nihilism

- Timeless Realm
 - Ego Death, beyond the Worldly Subjectivity
 - Oneness
 - Encounter and Union with God
 - Critique: Communicative Failure
-

IX. The Return to Temporal Nihilism

- Doubt Rekindled
 - Linguistic Breakdown
 - Symbolic Representations
-

X. The Continuous Cycle

- Ongoing Exploration
- Unresolved Questions
- Irresolvable Doubt